

WAGNER MIDDLE SCHOOL
TITLE I (section 1118) PARENTAL INVOLVEMENT
(b) SCHOOL PARENTAL INVOLVEMENT POLICY

Wagner Middle School shall:

Policy Involvement

1. Convene an annual meeting to inform and explain in an understandable and uniform format to parents their school's participation in the school wide Title I program, and their right to be involved. This meeting will take place in the fall of the year during orientation and/or school supply distribution day.
2. Offer a flexible number of meetings with the scheduled agenda to include discussion on planning, review, and program improvement.
3. Provide parents timely information about programs, a description and explanation of curriculum in use at the school, the forms of assessment used to measure student progress and the proficiency levels students are expected to meet. Information shared at registration days and/or school supply distribution.
4. Share a school-parent compact that outlines how parents, the entire school staff, and students share the responsibility for student achievement and the means by which the school and parents will build and develop a partnership to help serve the state's high standards.
5. Address the importance of communication between parents and teachers on an on-going basis, such as parent-teacher conferences, email, phone calls, report cards, and being involved in their child's classroom.
6. Building capacity for involvement through the school communications, invitations to events and classroom activities.
7. Provide literature to assist parents in understanding the state's academic and content standards and how to monitor a child's progress and work with educators to improve achievement. This literature will be made available in parent literature racks and also made available at parent teacher conferences.
8. Coordinate to the extent feasible and appropriate the integration of parent involvement and activities with Primary, Elementary, and High School.
9. Ensure that information related to schools and parent programs and meetings is sent to the parents in a format that is practical and in a language parents can understand through avenues such as School Reach notification system.
10. Provide such other reasonable support for parental involvement activities under this section as parents may request.
11. Pay reasonable and necessary expenses associated with local parental involvement activities, such as family read night, parent conferences, etc.
12. Arrange school meetings at a variety of times, or conduct over the phone conferences between educators and parents if requested to fit parents' schedules.
13. Invite community based organizations and businesses to participate in parental involvement activities.

Accessibility

To the extent practicable, provide full opportunities for the participation of parents with limited English proficiency, parents with disabilities, and parents of migratory children. This would include information in a format to the extent practicable; in a language such parents can understand.
